

Q1 Results: adesso Turkey reached over TL 1.5 million with an 88% increase in software exports

, 29. May 2017

Leading European companies are now using Turkish-engineered applications developed by adesso Turkey.

Over the year of 2016, adesso Turkey achieved 2.5 million software exports to Europe. In the first quarter of this year, the company increased its exports by 88 per cent to reach TL 1.5 million.

Europe's leading companies in the finance, insurance, automotive and telecom sectors are now using adesso Turkey's Java-based B2B and B2B2C applications, Dynamics CRM solutions, and iOS and Android apps.

adesso Turkey's General Manager Burak Bar# made the following statement regarding their exports: "As the subsidiary adesso Group, which is Germany's largest IT service provider, we develop software for leading companies in our country, as well as Europe's global companies. Currently, our team of 20 people develop software for international customers only. In addition, we also undertake the maintenance processes of all the applications we develop."

THIS YEAR'S GOAL IS TL 4 MILLION IN EXPORTS

Underlining that they will continue to make progress in the field of software exports in the future, Bar# stated that they have increased their export potential every year and that they aim to increase their software exports to TL 4 million at the end of 2017.

Bar# claims, "We consistently apply all our global project development methods and high standards to our projects in Turkey. When we combine the technical skills of our team with these methods, we provide a very high-quality software service. We are proceeding in the same way in the software projects we carry out for our domestic customers. "
